

Quiz 4: Lessons 13–16 – Careers

Name: _____

Listening

Listen and choose the best answer.

1. Why is Ms. Griffith in Mr. Patel's office?
 - a. to ask for a raise
 - b. to hear Mr. Patel's response to her request for a raise
 - c. to thank Mr. Patel for a raise and to ask him for a promotion, too
 - d. to learn how to be a better team player
2. What is Ms. Griffith's biggest challenge?
 - a. always doing a good job
 - b. being a team player
 - c. being punctual and professional
 - d. asking for a raise

Vocabulary

Choose the best answer.

3. A: At work I just make coffee and make copies of reports.
B: But that's true in a lot of _____. You have to wait for a promotion!
 - a. dream jobs
 - b. career paths
 - c. raises
 - d. entry-level jobs
4. A: Are you very careful about spelling and punctuation and making sure numbers are correct?
B: No. Honestly, I'm not very _____.
 - a. organized
 - b. professional
 - c. detail-oriented
 - d. motivated
5. People with only a few things to buy can _____ their own items at many supermarkets.
 - a. touchscreen
 - b. transaction
 - c. scan
 - d. discount
6. At a job interview, it's important not to _____ about past employers.
 - a. say negative things

- b. rehearse
- c. stay calm
- d. be punctual

Language Boosters

Choose the best answer.

7. A: What are your career plans?

B: _____

- a. I'm good at math and science.
- b. I'm planning on a career soon after graduation.
- c. I got a promotion last year.
- d. I'd like to work in the medical field.

8. A: Could you say a little more about the new project?

B: Yes, sure. _____

- a. I'm planning to send a thank-you note.
- b. I'll set up a meeting to tell you all about it tomorrow.
- c. To conclude, I'm looking forward to working with you.
- d. Does anyone have any questions?

9. A: What are your greatest strengths?

B: _____

- a. I know I need to be punctual for the interview.
- b. My family and my community.
- c. I used to be weak, but now I'm stronger.
- d. I have good people skills and good writing skills.

10. A: Oh, no! I've lost my whole report! I accidentally deleted it!

B: _____

- a. That makes sense. The report is gone.
- b. I see. So what you're saying is "oh, no!"
- c. Keep in mind that you wrote it before you lost it.
- d. That's too bad. It's important to back up and save your files often.