

Name: _____ Date: _____ Class: _____

Lessons 1–4: Presentation topics

- ☐ Describe a big change in your life.
- ☐ Tell a short, interesting, true story. It can be from your life, something you read, or something you heard on the news or from another person.
- ☐ Describe three things that annoy you.
- ☐ Describe a problem you had with a friend or family member and what you did about it

Name: _____ Date: _____ Class: _____

Lessons 5–8: Presentation topics

- ☐ Explain how you met two of your friends.
- ☐ Talk about the last time someone asked you to go out or get together.
- ☐ Talk about a false assumption you have made about someone.
- ☐ Talk about why you don't like something or are not interested in it even though it is popular.

Name: _____ Date: _____ Class: _____

Lessons 9–12: Presentation topics

- ☐ Describe your diet.
- ☐ Talk about some improvements you have made in your life or plan to make in your life.
- ☐ Evaluate your lifestyle. Talk about something you should do more of and something you should do less of.
- ☐ Give a talk persuading others to take some specific environmental action.

Name: _____ Date: _____ Class: _____

Lessons 13–16: Presentation topics

- ☐ Talk about your long- and short-term career goals.
- ☐ Imagine you are interviewing for a job you would like. Describe your strengths and weaknesses.
- ☐ Explain a process. It can be how to use an electronic device, a machine, athletic equipment, a kitchen appliance, etc.
- ☐ Give a talk about ways to be better in a common role. For example, you can talk about being a better student, friend, employee, neighbor, citizen, parent, or spouse.

Name: _____ Date: _____ Class: _____

Lessons 17–20: Presentation topics

- ☐ Talk about a fear that you have.

- ☐ Talk about a cause of stress in your life. Also talk about ways you have tried to deal with it and ideas for dealing with it in the future.

- ☐ Describe what you would wish for if you could choose any dream at all to come true for yourself.

- ☐ Talk about a regret that you have.

Name: _____ Date: _____ Class: _____

Lessons 21–24: Presentation topics

- ☐ Describe a movie you have seen and give your reactions to it.
- ☐ Describe your favorite singer, musician, or music group.
- ☐ Describe a fashion that is currently in style. Talk about who wears this fashion and whether or not you like it.
- ☐ Share some surprising news about a celebrity, a politician, an athlete, or other famous person. Or share some news about a well-known person in your school or community.

Name: _____ Date: _____ Class: _____

Lessons 25–28: Presentation topics

- ☐ Talk about a recent flight or train or bus trip. Include how you got to the place you departed from to the airport or station, your experience at the airport or station, and a description of the trip.

- ☐ Imagine you are training front desk workers for a large hotel. Explain to them what they should say when someone comes to the hotel looking for a room but there are no vacancies. Share some suggestions they could give to help the people.

- ☐ Imagine that you are responsible for planning the details of a trip for a group of your classmates. Name the destination, and then present some options to them. Give options for the following categories: sightseeing, expense, places to stay, meals, and transportation.

- ☐ Talk about some customs in your culture that are different from some other culture you know.

Name: _____ Date: _____ Class: _____

Lessons 29–32: Presentation topics

- ☐ Describe a sporting event you have recently played in, attended, or seen on TV or online. If you have no interest in sports and have not seen any sporting events recently, describe another event or competition.

- ☐ Talk about something unusual that happened to you within the last few weeks.

- ☐ Talk about two types of advertising that you think are very effective. Explain why you chose them, where and how often you see examples of them, and what kinds of things they advertise.

- ☐ Describe an issue in your school or in local, national, or international news. Give your opinion about what has caused the problem and give your ideas about possible solutions or steps toward solutions.