

Final Exam- Written: Listening

Speak Now 4. Final Exam.

Listening 1

- A: Oh, I love your dress. It's so stylish! Where did you get it?
B: Actually, I bought it in Thailand.
A: Thailand, really? When did you go to Thailand?
B: I just got back last week. I was there for two weeks, and it was wonderful.
A: That's fantastic. Was it your first time?
B: Yes. I have been so stressed with work that I really to just wanted go off the beaten path, keep my options open, and see what happened.
A: That sounds great.
B: It was. I stayed in a really nice little budget hotel. There was a small pool in the back of the hotel, and it was great just to lounge around and relax.
A: Fantastic. Did you see any of the famous tourist attractions there?
B: Oh, sure. I saw a few things. And I did a lot of shopping. The Thai designers are really trendy, and it's easy to stick to a budget because everything is so much cheaper there!

Listening 2

- A: If you could do anything, what would you do?
B: I'm not sure what you mean.
A: Well, if you could have any job or do anything you want, what would you do?
B: Oh, that's easy. I would be a famous movie star.
A: Really? Why?
B: Oh, I think it would be great to be famous and rich. I would have an active social life with all the trendy people in Hollywood. I would stay in luxury hotels and travel the world. I think it would be great.
B: Oh, not me. All the gossip and the paparazzi...? That would be terrible.
A: Well, what would you do then?
B: I... would be a scientist. I would explore time travel and develop a machine to travel back to the most famous times in history.
A: Hmm.... That does sound pretty cool. But I think I still want to be a famous movie star!

Question 4: Conversation

- A: How are your classes going, Mina?
- B: Oh, pretty well, Steven. The workload is kind of tough, but I enjoy the challenge, and most of my classes are really interesting.
- A: Yeah... same here. I have one class that I really love.
- B: Oh? What's that?
- A: It's called "The Power of Movies."
- B: I'm not sure I understand. You have a class about movies?
- A: Yeah. It's great. We watch all kinds of movies and then discuss how they make us feel. Studies show that our moods can really be influenced by the things we watch.
- B: Wow... that's really interesting.
- A: But it's not as simple as it sounds. Of course, if you watch something hilarious, you will probably feel really happy, but when you watch something really depressing, it doesn't always make you feel sad. Actually, it can sometimes have the opposite effect.
- B: Really? I've never thought about that before.
- A: Yeah. It's a great class. You should take it next semester. I really think you'd like it.

Question 5: Lecture

Most people are afraid of something, but some people have what is called a phobia. That means that their fear of something is so strong that it influences the way they live. For example, Sandra has a terrible fear of flying. Unfortunately, she has to travel a lot for work, and she often has to fly. Sometimes, for weeks before she flies, she becomes extremely stressed and has a terrible feeling of fear that won't go away. On the day of the flight, she often wakes up feeling sick. On the plane, her fear becomes so strong that she feels like she cannot breathe. Sandra has explored meditation and other relaxation techniques, but nothing works. Every time she gets on a plane, it gets worse and worse. Sandra takes her job very seriously, but her fear of flying is so bad, it is affecting her work. She knows her fear isn't normal, but she can't control it. That is the power of a phobia.
